The Junior Woman's Club of Raleigh

The Junior Woman's Club of Raleigh is a women's organization dedicated to community improvement by enhancing lives through leadership opportunities and volunteer service.

The Junior Woman's Club of Raleigh

JWC of Raleigh is a non-profit, civic organization for women committed to promoting volunteerism, improving our community, and fostering new friendships.

Under the auspices of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of North Carolina, the JWC was founded in 1928. JWC of Raleigh emphasizes citizenship and provides opportunities for leadership development, personal growth, and networking through community involvement.

Being a member of our club will offer you the opportunity to learn from a variety of speakers about topics that are impacting our community. Come and visit our club to see how you can make a difference in our county, state and beyond. Participate in an assortment of projects including many hands-on activities which offer enriching experiences to our membership.

A few recent projects include:

- Support literacy programs across NC and local schools
- Providing food and blankets to SPCA
- Helping families during holidays by supporting Angel Tree Tag programs
- Organizing the NC State Tree Lighting & Holiday Celebration
- Painting pumpkins for the residents of the Ronald McDonald House and Hospice of Wake County
- Regular work on Glenwood Avenue with Adopt -a- Highway

The JWC of Raleigh offers several avenues for members to become involved in community service. Our club selects projects and programs that best fit our community's needs from the following six community service programs:

Awards at our yearly
State Convention

- Arts
- Conservation
- Education
- Home Life
- International and Public Affairs
- Fund Development

Partnering in Our Communities

JWC of Raleigh offers a number of social activities to foster club friendships while financially supporting local charities. Join us as we host a variety of events. Past fund raisers have included:

- 5K Race
- Furniture Consignment Sales
- Golf Tournaments
- Silent Auctions
- Mix and Mingles

General Federation of Women's Clubs

The JWC of Raleigh is a member of the GFWC. As a member, we are part of the world's largest and oldest non-denominational, non-partisan international volunteer service organization of women.

Membership Information

Membership is open to women between the ages of 18 and 45 regardless of race, creed, or national origin. Prospective members are invited to attend any of our monthly General Meetings, Community Service Program meetings or other committee meetings held each month.

General meetings are held the second Tuesday evening of every month, September through May.

We look forward to meeting you!

If a prospective member is interested in joining the club, we request that she submit a membership application. Upon acceptance of the membership application, women are nominated into the club throughout the year and inducted at our annual installation banquet held each May.
